

Tajinder Rathor

 BComm, JD
Associate

☎ 236.826.4738

✉ tajinderr@langfordlaw.com

About Tajinder

Tajinder Rathor is an Associate practicing in the areas of corporate and commercial law, with an emphasis on transactional matters through various business growth phases.

Tajinder has experience acting for public and private companies, institutional investors, high net-worth individuals and family offices in a wide array of industries. Tajinder provides advice and representation with respect to business entities, shareholder and governance matters, corporate reorganizations, equity financings, commercial arrangements and transactional matters including share and asset purchase and sale agreements.

Tajinder takes a practical approach and aims to explain and address complex legal matters in easily understandable ways. He applies his adaptable and practical style to all matters, ensuring clients receive efficient service. Clients value his sound judgment, practical approach and knack for understanding their business.

Prior to joining Langford Law, Tajinder practiced at in the corporate group of a national law firm, as well as a boutique corporate law firm, both of which were in British Columbia.

Education

Thomson Rivers University, Juris Doctor (JD)

University of British Columbia, Bachelor of Commerce (Hons.) (BComm), Finance

Bar Admissions

British Columbia, 2017

Practice Areas

Corporate Law

Commercial Law

Awards & Recognition

- Recognized in The Best Lawyers in Canada™: Ones to Watch for Corporate Law, Mergers & Acquisitions, and Securities Law in 2023, 2024, and 2025
- Silver Medalist, Thomson Rivers University

Professional & Community Activities

- Member, Law Society of British Columbia
- Member, Canadian Bar Association
- Member, South Asian Bar Association of British Columbia